GARDEN PARTY: Thank you to all who helped our parishes celebrate Fr Vincent's 30th anniversary of ordination. St Anthony's parishioners thank St Edmund's for hosting the celebration and our joint fundraising for Mary's Meals. They enjoyed and appreciated the delicious lunch and entertainment. We were blessed with fine weather and an opportunity to get to know one another in your lovely gardens, it was also a fitting celebration of Pentecost.

100 CLUB winners were Helen Murphy, Eileen Byrne, and Mark Maharaj.

CHURCH CLEANING: After 35 years' service Helga and Andy Stevens are stepping down from the cleaning rota. We thank them for all their work. We now need additional volunteers to undertake cleaning in Week 1 of the rota, once a month. If you can help, please speak to Father Vincent. There is no need to commit to 35 years! Thank you.

CALNE RECREATION GROUND: Calne Town Council has been looking at the Recreation Ground and how it is currently used. Historically the Recreation Ground was built to provide a public pleasure ground and last year comments were received from local people wishing to have a more family orientated open space to enjoy. Please complete the survey to let the Council know your thoughts, www.bit.ly/calnerec, closing date 30th June 2019
