THE HOLY SHROUD OF TURIN EXHIBITION: The Holy Shroud of Turin exhibition is on display at St John's Catholic Church, in South Parade, Bath, until Sunday 17th May. The exhibition features a full-sized replica of the Shroud of Turin – the actual Shroud is housed in the cathedral of the Italian city of Turin – and includes detailed information boards. The exhibition includes original Roman nails, a replica whip and a spear. And there are information boards about art, history and the latest research on the Shroud. It offers a wonderful opportunity to learn more and study this sacred cloth - which for some, has proved to be a deeply moving and profound experience. You can find further details of the exhibition which has travelled across the country by looking at the exhibition website: shroudofturin.uk. St John's is open each day from about 7.30am, closing at 6.30pm each evening. You would be very welcome to come and visit the church and the Shroud exhibition.

NEWS FROM RIGHT TO LIFE: The Westminster assisted suicide Bill has failed to pass all stages in the House of Lords. This means that Kim Leadbeater’s assisted suicide Bill has fallen and will not become law. This is a major milestone, but the battle is not over. Assisted suicide campaigners have said they are going to try to bring the Bill back in the next parliamentary session and use the Parliament Acts to bypass the Lords. To find out more about this significant milestone and what comes next, visit: https://righttolife.org.uk/LeadbeaterBillFalls

DEFEND NHS STAFF CONSCIENCE RIGHTS: Following the fall of the Leadbeater assisted suicide Bill, fresh bids to introduce an assisted dying law in England and Wales are anticipated. Any new law would likely pressure NHS staff to be involved in some way and offer even less protection to institutions like hospices. You can help protect healthcare workers and hospices by signing the Bios Centre online petition. It calls on Health Secretary, Wes Streeting, to protect conscientious objection rights for religious and personal beliefs. Sign the petition at Petition on Conscience Protection - Bios Centre

NEWSLETTER SUBMISSIONS: Please note that submission of items for newsletters need to be received before the preceding Wednesday of each week. Contact details; please speak to Fr Vincent or email calne.stedmund@cliftondiocese.com Thank you.
